

FIELD CARD

FOR AN UNREASONABLY SPECIFIC DRAWER

OBJECT

One brass handle without an agreed door

LOCATION

Cupboard beside the kettle, third drawer

DATE

12 March 1984, approximately 14:20

RECORDED BY

The Night Shift Committee

CONDITION

Polished by handling; purpose remains speculative

HANDLING INSTRUCTIONS

1. Open the drawer as though it has already objected.
2. Do not separate the handle from its unreasonable specificity.
3. Return before tea, or leave a note with a convincing diagram.

SIGNIFICANCE

Proof that a filing system may be exact, useful and faintly ridiculous.
